If you believe that any party should not be registered because, under the Electoral Act:

the party does not meet the eligibility criteria for registration; or the party's application has not been correctly made; or the party's name and/or abbreviation are prohibited, you may lodge an objection. Objections must be received by the Commissioner by 20 August 2007, and must be in writing and include your name, street address, signature and the grounds for your objection. Objections can be sent to the

Electoral Commissioner
Australian Electoral Commission
PO Box 6172
Kingston, ACT 2604 or faxed to (02) 6271 4555 or scanned and emailed to fad@aec.gov.au

For more detailed information on objecting to an application for the registration of a political party, please consult the AEC website at the following link, or contact the AEC by fax or email as above or by phone on 02 6271 4667.
