

Assistant Secretary
International Human Rights and Anti-Discrimination Branch Attorney-General's Department

Dear Sir/Madam

May we respectfully suggest that continuing to extend and add to anti-discrimination laws has the effect of discriminating against many. Freedoms of thought and action, especially related to matters of conscience, are being constantly eroded. Please re-consider new moves mooted by the present Government.

Thankyou.

Mr and Mrs D J Simmons