

To whom it may concern.

I am writing in support of your move for antidiscrimination for gay/lesbians.

I am a lesbian Christian, and would like to stand up and say that not all Christians are opposed to equality for gay/lesbian/transgender individuals or couples. God says to love on another, and I find it wonderful, if not intriguing that the government is one step ahead of the church in this matter. Thankyou for pushing for our equality, and please continue in providing equal rights for us, including the ability to marry.

Many thanks,
