

Dear Sir / Madam,

I absolutely agree not to discriminate against any person, but I have a great desire to contend for every kind of moral protection for every person. To change the moral laws in this country as has been presented again and again by a minority is to bring to a head every possible exposure against protection. This protection is vital for the well being of every person in this wonderful country.

The foundation of this country is based in Christianity which presents Man and Woman as created by God in His image!!! Surely this is the absolute best to be presented by the Government for everyone. Those who do not agree will always choose to live outside the boundaries set by God; but surely we are not so small minded to change the whole country to please those few and then condemn others who voice the desire to continue with the protection this country has always afforded.

Please do not be pushed and persuaded to bring this country into moral decline.

Mrs Clarice Barker
