

We would respectfully request that NO CHANGES BE MADE to the current laws. By extending them further it jeopardises freedom of speech and religion. Our laws are already adequate without complicating the situation. Please vote against these changes that send us into a backward spiral of confusion.

Norman and Lillias Shellard