

Dear Sir,

I write to make a submission on behalf of my wife and myself with reference to the Inquiry into Commonwealth anti-discrimination laws. We wish to make the following points:

1. We are strongly opposed to the bringing about of any changes to extend anti-discrimination law.
2. We firmly believe that all anti-discrimination law has the effect of removing freedom of choice.
3. In particular we firmly reject any thought of introducing anti-discrimination legislation based on sexuality and gender identity.

Yours faithfully,

George Lee
