

Application – release up to 30 days before end of a non-parole period

This form may be used for a Commonwealth offender who is serving a current sentence of imprisonment to apply for release up to 30 days before the end of a non-parole period.

Applications are subject to section 19AL(3A) of the Crimes Act 1914 (Cth).

I, [full name] _____

currently a prisoner held at [name of prison], _____

in [State or Territory] _____ hereby apply for release up to 30 days before the end of a non-parole period.

I, consent to any reports (including medical reports), assessments or other any information obtained or supplied in respect of me being provided to the Commonwealth Parole Office in the Attorney-General's Department in relation to my application for 30 days early release.

Signed: _____

Date: _____

Details of Application

- 1) This application is made on the following grounds:
(If space insufficient, set out grounds on additional sheet.)

Subsection 19AL(3A) - Crimes Act 1914 (Cth)

- (3A) If the Attorney-General considers that in all the circumstances it is appropriate to do so, the Attorney-General may specify in a parole order that a person is to be released from prison on a day that is before the end of the non-parole period, but is not earlier than 30 days before the end of the non-parole period.