Dear Sir/Madam

I refer to your letter of 30 May 2017 addressed to Mr Shane Carmody, Chief Executive Officer and Director of Aviation Safety at the Civil Aviation Safety Authority (CASA), concerning the Review of the Operation of the Sunsetting Provisions of the Legislation Act 2003. Mr Carmody has asked me to respond on his behalf.

Having reviewed the consultation paper, CASA offers the following recommendation: as the continued operation of the Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability) Regulations 1991 is required, and as these regulations are scheduled to sunset in 2018, CASA believes these regulations should be subject to a sunsetting exemption.

I trust this information is of assistance.

Yours sincerely
