

Application form for Legal Financial Assistance under the special circumstances scheme (overseas legal matters)

This form is to be completed by applicants seeking assistance for legal and related expenses from the Commonwealth for overseas legal matters under the special circumstances scheme.

Financial assistance under this scheme will only be granted in the most exceptional of circumstances. Special circumstances include, but are not limited to cases where:

- (a) no other scheme of legal financial assistance applies, but there is a moral obligation on the Commonwealth to make a grant
- (b) a statutory scheme of legal financial assistance applies, but produces an unintended, anomalous, inequitable or otherwise unacceptable result
- (c) an individual – who has a continuing connection with Australia – is being, or will be, prosecuted for a criminal offence overseas and the Attorney-General is satisfied that the exceptional circumstances of the case justify the provision of financial assistance by the Commonwealth.

Before submitting an application

Before completing this application form, you should read the following documents to ensure you are eligible to apply for Commonwealth legal financial assistance (available on the Attorney-General's Department's website at www.ag.gov.au):

- Commonwealth Guidelines for Legal Financial Assistance 2012
- Commonwealth Legal Financial Assistance – Assessment of Costs 2012

All applications are means tested and applications that do not meet the means test or other eligibility criteria will not be further considered.

Completing an application

This form, as well as an Australian Federal Police National Police Check form (available on the department's website), must be completed in full. Please type or print clearly and answer ALL questions.

You must also provide an overseas penal clearance certificate (also known as an overseas police check) from each country in which you have:

- resided for 12 months or more in the previous ten years, and/or
- ever been charged with a criminal offence.

Country specific information about how to obtain an overseas penal clearance certificate is available on the Department of Home Affairs' website: <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/trav/citi/appl/what-documents-do-you-need/good-character-and-offences>. If you have a lawyer, they will be able to assist you to obtain any required overseas penal clearance certificate. If you do not have a lawyer, please contact the Financial Assistance Section of the department for guidance (finassgeneral@ag.gov.au or Ph: +61 2 6141 4770 or 1800 117 995).

Only complete applications that are accompanied by all required supporting documents will be processed within 28 days.

Applications will not be considered unless all information (including attachments) is provided. If space provided is insufficient, include additional material on a separate page and attach to the form.

This form must be signed in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner for Declarations or other authorised person in your State or Territory before whom a declaration may be made. Refer to the Commonwealth Statutory Declaration included in Attachment D to this form for a full list of authorised persons.

How to submit your application

It is our preference that completed applications are submitted by email to finassgeneral@ag.gov.au. Alternatively, they may be sent to:

Financial Assistance Section
Legal Assistance Branch
Attorney-General's Department
3–5 National Circuit
BARTON ACT 2606
Ph: +61 2 6141 4770 or 1800 117 995

If you need further assistance in completing your application, please refer to the department's website at www.ag.gov.au or contact the Financial Assistance Section on the details above.

When to submit your application

You should submit an application before you start incurring legal costs. Costs incurred before the department receives an application for legal financial assistance will generally not be paid. If you have only been given a short amount of notice before the hearing or interview, you may notify the department in writing of your intention to lodge an application. You can do this by sending an email to finassgeneral@ag.gov.au. You must then lodge a complete application as soon as possible but no later than 14 days after you notify the department. In these circumstances, consideration will be given to costs incurred from the date the department receives your notice.

After submitting an application

Confidentiality

All applications (including incomplete applications) will be treated in confidence. The department will not disclose any information regarding an application, including the fact that a person has applied for financial assistance, except where this is:

- (a) necessary to assess the application

- (b) necessary for purposes relevant to administering the financial assistance scheme
- (c) in accordance with the express authority of an applicant
- (d) required to correct the public record, or
- (e) required by law.

Consent for the collection, use and disclosure of information

For the purposes of performing functions relating to the provision of financial assistance under the Commonwealth Guidelines for Legal Financial Assistance 2012, the applicant, by applying for a grant of financial assistance, consents to the department disclosing information in the application to, or collecting further information about the applicant from:

- (a) other areas of the department, including information relating to international obligations, Commonwealth laws and any other interactions with the department
- (b) other Commonwealth or State government agencies, including the Australian Federal Police, the Australian Tax Office, the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade and the Department of Human Services including information relating to the applicant's criminal history, financial details, laws and the status of legal proceedings in the overseas country
- (c) an Australian organisation that provides legal aid or legal assistance, including information relating to the applicant's eligibility to receive legal assistance
- (d) a financial institution, including information relating to the applicant's financial details, and
- (e) the applicant's current and past legal representatives, including information relating to the conduct of the legal matter, and the applicant also consents to:

- (a) the collection of further information about the applicant from an overseas organisation that provides legal aid, or legal assistance or specialist in-country advice, including information relating to the applicant's eligibility to receive legal assistance in the overseas country, and
- (b) the disclosure of personal information about the applicant to an overseas recipient, including information relating to the applicant to receiving advice or assistance in the overseas country

understanding that if the overseas recipient handles the applicant's personal information in breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, the department will not be accountable under the Privacy Act 1988 for that breach and the applicant will not be able to seek redress under that Act.

The department will seek further consent from the applicant in the event that it is necessary to disclose or collect information in addition to the kind of information referred to above.

Failure to provide this consent, or withdrawing this consent in the future, may result in the application being considered incomplete.

Important information for applicants

Availability of grants

Given the competing demands on each scheme, there is no guarantee your application will be approved. This is the case even if your matter appears to satisfy the relevant scheme guidelines, and even if you have received funding for the same matter in the past.

Obligations on applicants

Applicants MUST:

- provide clear and concise answers to all questions in this form
- disclose where they have been the subject of criminal proceedings in Australia or overseas
- inform the department of any changes to their circumstances (after a grant has been approved)

The failure to do so may result in your application being considered incomplete, or – if a grant has been approved – your grant being cancelled and the department initiating action to recover any funds paid.

Commonwealth law includes offences with penalties of up to 10 years' imprisonment for persons who do any of the following:

- (a) make false or misleading statements or provide false or misleading information (including omitting information)
- (b) obtain property or financial advantage by deception
- (c) do something dishonestly to obtain a gain or a financial advantage
- (d) influence a Commonwealth official
- (e) use forged documents.

If a grant has been approved, grant recipients MUST inform the department of any changes to their circumstances. Failure to do so may result in the grant being cancelled and the department initiating action to recover any funds paid.

Complying with terms and conditions

All grants of assistance are conditional. Each grant is made with specific terms and conditions (such as a start and end date, and an upper limit of funding), and specific invoicing and reporting requirements. These terms and conditions will be provided to you if your application for assistance is successful. It is important to be familiar with these terms and conditions, as failure to comply with them may result in non-payment of your legal costs.

Rates of payment under grants

The department is unable to pay full commercial legal rates. Capped rates are found in the Commonwealth Legal Financial Assistance– Assessment of Costs 2012 document. Grants of assistance should be viewed as a contribution towards your legal costs, not an undertaking to meet your full legal costs. You should discuss with your lawyer the limits to the funding available under any grant provided by this department.

5. Exceptional circumstances

The purpose of the special circumstances scheme is to provide financial assistance for an entity involved in legal action in special circumstances. Under paragraph 3.10(2)(e) of the Commonwealth Guidelines for Legal Financial Assistance 2012, special circumstances include:

Cases where an individual – who has a continuing connection with Australia – is being, or will be, prosecuted for a criminal offence overseas for which the individual may be punished by a term of imprisonment equal to or longer than 20 years, and the Attorney-General is satisfied that the exceptional circumstances of the case justify the provision of financial assistance by the Commonwealth (underlining added).

5.1 Please outline the exceptional circumstances of the case that justify the provision of financial assistance by the Commonwealth.

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

6. Special considerations for applications under non-statutory schemes

In considering an application for the special circumstances scheme, the decision-maker must have regard to a number of special considerations. Please address the following:

6.1

(a) Are you a citizen or resident of Australia? If so, please provide your citizenship or Australian residency details.

(b) What is your continuing connection with Australia?

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

6.2 Have you been the subject of criminal proceedings in Australia or overseas?

(a) If YES, address EACH of the following:

- i. The gravity (seriousness) and nature of the conduct alleged against you.
- ii. The outcome of those criminal proceedings.

If you fail to disclose any relevant information, your application may be considered incomplete, or –if a grant has been approved - your grant may be cancelled and the department may initiate action to recover any funds paid.

(b) As well as this form, you must also:

- i. Complete an Australian Federal Police National Police Check form (available on the department's website).
- ii. Provide an overseas penal clearance certificate (also known as an overseas police check) from each country in which you have:
 - resided for 12 months or more in the previous ten years, and/or
 - ever been charged with a criminal offence.

Country specific information about how to obtain an overseas penal clearance certificate is available on the Department of Home Affairs' website: <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/trav/citi/appl/what-documents-do-you-need/good-character-and-offences>. If you have a lawyer, they will be able to assist you to obtain any required overseas penal clearance certificate. If you do not have a lawyer, please contact the Financial Assistance Section of the department for guidance (finassgeneral@ag.gov.au or Ph: +61 2 6141 4770 or 1800 117 995).

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

6.3 If you are currently overseas, under what circumstances did you depart Australia?

Include your departure date, the purpose of the travel, the intended length of stay, other relevant details.

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

7. Case details

Attach copies of any court documents and letters from your solicitor about the case. It is important that you include all relevant information to your case to help us assess your application in a timely manner.

7.1 Copy of police charge document attached:

Yes

7.2 Describe the background of the case (if different to 5.3 above).

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

7.3 If you are involved in criminal proceedings, describe the nature of the charge(s) and the stage of the case(s) below. Address each of the following:

- (a) Have you already appeared before court? What are the future court dates? (Attach copies of court documents showing court dates).
- (b) What are the minimum and maximum applicable penalties?
- (c) What are the options for appeal if you plead or are found guilty?
- (d) At what stage is the case? What is the next stage?
- (e) What were the circumstances leading to your arrest?

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

7.4 Describe your proposed legal representation in the overseas country:

- (a) What are the names and roles of each legal representative?
- (b) What are the legal arguments in support of your case?
- (c) What is the legal strategy or steps to be taken in the next six months?
- (d) What evidence or witnesses do you have to support your case?

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

7.5 Is there any further information relevant to your application?

[If you require more space to address this question, please include it as an attachment to this form.]

8. Budget details

Please provide a breakdown of costs associated with the case (including a detailed costs estimate for the next six months).

Retrospective costs will not generally be covered by a grant of financial assistance. Subsection 6.7(1) of the Commonwealth Guidelines for Legal Financial Assistance 2012 provides that a grant for retrospective costs must not be given, except in the most exceptional of circumstances (underlining added). Retrospective costs are costs incurred before the date on which the department receives a complete application. If you are seeking funding for retrospective costs, please explain the exceptional circumstances that apply to your application.

What is the total estimated legal cost for resolving your case?
