

I DO NOT support giving the courts access to two years worth of private digital records. It is not your right to be so invasive on people's rights. How can you be protecting our safety and freedom when there's no freedom left to speak of?