

Stop it government, no.

I do not support the use of metadata in civil cases. I support the use in high priority criminal cases such as rape or homicide investigations.

I especially do not support the use of metadata in cases regarding state affairs such as terrorism or treason cases. I'm not suggesting the Liberal Coalition would ever abuse the powers of it's position but someone someday might. Those Green lefties look suss to me.

Much love,

James