

I completely reject the notion that the AGD is considering allowing access to Metadata to civil lawsuits. Get out of bed with the likes of Village Road show and protect our privacy. These laws were sold on a security measure (which we know was complete lies) and if you want another term in government I'd keep it that way.

Jason