

Dear Sir/Madam,

It becomes quite clear to me that this government does not care for the people it is employed to protect but rather that business it it's priority. It's time you start doing your jobs and stop increasing restrictions on the movements of your own citizens; the right to privacy y is not dead and there is no justification for the proposed changes that don't contravene UN human rights laws.

Kind regards
Caroline