

I oppose the data retention act. Because we live in democracy and my private life is just that. I do not agree with government spying and keeping records. As we know records can be wrongfully interpreted, so even innocent action can be misconstrued.

Gary Brisbane Australia