

Dear George Brandis,

I'm not able to sit back and watch anti-terrorism laws become a carte blanche for angry litigants in the court system and let the slippery slope of legislative scope creep take another victim.

If you have any further questions do not hesitate to contact.

Regards,

Campbell Murphy