

To whom it may concern,

Please don't expand or in fact keep the laws regarding the use and storing of metadata. I like many Australians have absolutely nothing to hide by the government having access to this information, but i don't feel it's very becoming of who we are as a Democracy or a Country.

Regards

Carl Nagle