

Dear Attorney-General

I hope that I have been told a furphy.

Surely the Government is not considering allowing the metadata that is being collected for the purposes of fighting terrorism to be able to subpoenaed for use in civil litigation.

Please re-assure me that the people spreading this (mis)information are merely causing mischief.

Yours respectfully

Giuseppe De Simone