

To whom it may concern,

After reading the above mentioned consultation paper it saddens me to hear that the Government is looking to broaden terror laws to come after our own citizens in civil matters.

This is a fundamental breach of trust and privacy and I urge the Government to reconsider this proposal.

Regards

Keegan Sard