

The only possible exclusions should be for well grounded fears of, or threats of, or acts of violence. There certainly should not be exclusions to enable any person or corporation to gain financially. This is not the reason the database was created for.

Yours sincerely,

Matthew Wickert