

I object to data retention as a whole, but use of it should be restricted to matters of national security.

Natalie Lamb