

To whom it may concern,

I am very concerned about the proposal to allow further access to meta data, or for that matter any data which is created from my personal internet or communication activities.

I see this as a serious breach of my privacy and a threat to my personal liberties.

Please accept my strongest object to any loosening of these laws.

Sincerely,
Reuben Ramsay
Buderim Qld