

Two years ago George Brandis couldn't even describe what metadata was. Despite this he assured us it would only be used in terrorism criminal investigations, now, it appears he actually wants it to be open to all. This proposal shows the disrespect AG Brandis has for the Australian public and it's privacy. The government should reject this proposal if it would like voters to believe it has any integrity at all.

Robert Lewis MacLeod
Mermaid Beach Qld