

Submission on access to retained data in civil proceedings.

As a quintessenti individual citizen of this country, I strongly reject and condemn the use of metadata in civil proceedings or any use outside of anti terrorism law enforcement.

I disagree with the storage of the data in the first place and submit that the expansion or creation of an exception to use telecommunications data should not be allowed.

Thanks,

Ryan Perera
Viewbank, Victoria